PREFACE.

More than the usual amount of exertion and care has been bestowed on the Directory for this year. It was our intention to include a Directory of Portsmouth, but having canvassed it without finding encouragement for its publication, we were forced to abandon the undertaking much to our regret and pecuniary loss. We have inserted, as usual, a Business Directory of Portsmouth.

The publication of an annual Directory is in many ways a sure indication of the condition, prosperity, and growth of Norfolk, and it should be regarded as a herald to the world of its prosperity.

In the Directory for 1867 there are 989 new names, 910 alterations, and 316 new firms and persons in business.

Our thanks are due to the patrons of this work for aid given by advertising and subscriptions, and to E. R. Hunter, Esq., for valuable assistance.

THE

Norfolk Printing House Co.

No. 16 Roanoke Ave.,

Having purchased the good-will and materials of the Daily Old Dominion, Norfolk Times, and Journal of Commerce, have commenced the publication of

The Norfolk Journal,

Daily, Tri-Weekly, and Weekly, and is conducted by a corps of experienced and able Editors and Reporters.

The Paper will be devoted to News, Commerce, and General Literature, and eschew politics.

No means will be spared to make the JOURNAL a most valuable Family Newspaper, the object of the Company being not so much the desire for profit, as a wish to supply our community with a first-class newspaper and advertising medium.

Our Job office is the largest and most complete in the State, and the printing executed by us warranted to equal in execution and price the best work done in New York or Baltimore.
